

Women's Therapy Group

This group will provide a safe, supportive yet challenging place for women to explore their interactions with others & their inner selves. The issues addressed will include intimacy, family, self-perception, identity, competition, feelings & daily self-imposed pressures to succeed. This group is scheduled to begin in February 2011. If you are interested in attending this group, please email the therapist/facilitator at: fran@bengordoncenter.org or call 815-756-4875.
